Roger Waters will perform his masterpiece The Wall at Vector Arena in February 2012. The Wall, a defining work in rock music's history, was released by Pink Floyd and performed live only 29 times in 1980/81. In 2010, it was brought meticulously to life by Roger Waters and his stunning band, performing the album live in its entirety.

This pyrotechnic rock opera features all the classic Roger Waters special effects, including the original Gerald Scarfe imagery, the crashing aeroplane, quadraphonic sound, pyrotechnics, gigantic inflatable puppets and flying pig, and adds the latest projection technology, video mapping and many elaborate effects. We are delighted to host the first ever New Zealand performance of this modern masterpiece.
